“ I've struggled to find breath, find words, find focus, find sleep; my brain can't find the way to make sense of having to do all of this; of you being gone. I'm finding peace in the moments I'm reminded to be still, and trust The Plan. You know I never really dream (not to memory, anyway) so thank you for the few I've had recently, finding a way to guide me to peace, and to safety...I know you hooked that up...falling asleep on the highway, still in drive-should've been a more speedy reunion than I might've expected...preshiate ya 😊 I'm gonna find the strength to still all of the chaos that grief plagues me with, and find my way to peace. Matrese reminded me that you would expect that. I bet she still gets on your nerves, ALWAYS saying the right thing. lol She misses you bad. We all miss you, Becks. I gotta drive so I'm not late to your celebrate. See you there? ALL Love, Always. - Trev

“ December 2021 is the month our relationship started. I'd seen you at church but we had more opportunity to connect at Parnell's birthday celebration. From that date we would chat and text during the wee hours of the morning. Things were difficult for you but I'm so glad I can say I watched, and heard you get better over that time. This December would have been a year for you and I. We laughed about counseling sessions and your CRAZY instagram posts, lol. We were so glad when church started offering group counseling. You were a fighter child, lol. Im so glad to be able to say I knew you and had the opportunity to love you.

“ I remember when I asked you was your name Snow cause I didn't know what everyone were calling you other than Alicia! "Its Snug," she said! Then we all laughed so hard!! That was the most funniest memory of you! So now, that name has stuck with you to me. I Love you Snow, and you will truly be missed!

“Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. For we live by faith, not by sight. We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So we make it our goal to please Him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each of us may receive what is due us for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.”

Alicia “Snug” you have truly lived by faith and made it your goal to serve Him and do all duties while on this earth! You have been rewarded. Heaven has gained another angel 💖🕊️
