“ My father wore a lot of hats grandad father husband brother deacon friend... he knew no stranger and his presence could always be felt in any room he was in. He had several nicknames no one ever called him Allen unknown fact many people actually think his name is Tony because it was the loving name my mother gave him while they were dating. To my son Christian he shared the name Guru because he said the two of the had the knowledge of all things. To Allena he was her first best friend grindaddy and she was his woobie...to my sister he was daddddd and she was his joy... to me he was my twin my buddy and I was teen his superstar. His siblings loving knew him as Tommyhawk the people who worked with him knew him as howling wolf .. church members called deacon McLaurin and some called him little Al. He is loved and will always be remembered for he could entertain you with a good joke or a belted out song. He not only painted pictures to remembered in his garage gallery but forever in my Heart ❤️

“ My Condolences to the family, pray God will give them the strength to get through this time of bereavement. God is able to do anything but fail. Lord this man of God will truly be missed from singing down here. We know he is singing with the Heavenly Choir up in Heaven. Rest on my brother until we meet on that other shore. Not saying goodbye but see you later. Sending Love to his wife Rosa and his daughters Joyce and Tina. AMEN.
