“ Deacon Annie King was both an inspiration and a living testimony to "shedding the old life and putting on the new life." Ephesians 4: 22-24. She demonstrated through her devotion to the Greater Fellowship family, her commitment to her calling, and her contributions to various church causes and needs, that her hand was firmly planted on the gospel plow that Jesus referenced in Luke 9:62. She definitely had a way with a tambourine; she could make it shake, rattle, and roll.

*While her physical voice may be stilled, I know she is making melody as she walks around paradise without a crutch, a cane, or a wheelchair. Serving the Lord will payoff, after a while.
Lay down your sword and shield, Deacon King.*

“ Sis. Annie King was a joy to talk to. She kept me laughing all the time. She called me her Road Dog. What I remember most from her was when she told that God had changed her life and she felt that her old lifestyle was leading her to an early grave. I will always treasure our conversations. God Blessed me by connecting Annie and I. My Lady met her one time and asked about her all the time after the one meeting. May God continue to Bless the Family, Friends and Loved Ones.
