“ My husband and I just ran into Brenda’s sister, Stacey and asked her to tell Brenda hello. Brenda and I worked together at the bank years ago. She became an instant friend and a true go getter. She could make

You laugh and never gave any negativity. Rest in Peace Brenda

“ Words can’t describe how much I miss my mama! I lost my heart on November 26th, and I’m having a hard time trying to close that hole in my heart! My mom was an outstanding mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend! My mom wore many hats, and was a very hardworking women! I seen my mom, find a way out of no way! My mom was smart, the life of the party, a diva, soooo funny, and an independent woman. I aspire to be like her in many ways, because she didn’t wait on anyone and went after her dreams! I love you so much ma 💕💕

“ I can't put into words right now what I'm feeling. My sister Brenda is one of a kind. She was so uniquely made and crafted by the GREATEST creator. Brenda is not ours GOD allowed us all paths to cross for his purpose and plan. GOD is the GREAT I AM, the ALPHA and Omega, the only wise GOD and creator of the universe GOD is life. We love you Brenda, but GOD loves her most. We give GOD thanks for your love, time, memories, laughter, fun, funny and so much more that you gave us all from your heart. From my heart to yours love Sister Soldier.
