Wow, what an amazing spirit! I have not seen Carolyn in a while, but this beautiful, smiling photo is so representative of the joyous light she always seemed to carry. Am saddened by this loss, but encouraged by the truth that she is rejoicing in the presence of the Lord right now. Stay encouraged, family.

Today is Carolyn's birthday and it just popped up on my calendar. I met Carolyn over 20 years ago when she worked at the health department. I was super young- but we just clicked. She called me her daughter and we always kept in touch periodically over the years. It had been over a month and I hadn't heard from her so I called her phone. It was disconnected and I knew something was wrong. I googled her name and my heart sank! I had no idea she had passed. I'm so sorry I missed her services, but I know she's now resting. She was such a bright light to all she encountered and I miss her! Today she would want a balloon and something simple like KFC or a fish plate for her birthday. I miss you my dear...real bad. ❤️❤️❤️ continue to rest.
