“ *In my nearly 50 year relationship with Ms Carrie, I can attest to her quiet , dedicated , serving life. She barely spoke above a whisper, yet she spoke volumes. She was a saint of many talents. Lover of the Lord, Mother , grandma, sister, auntie , friend , seamstress, chef , caregiver just to name a few. She would sit at that sewing machine many days and nights to get the job done and done well!
Wow did she love the Lord and had been on the battle field for a LONG time. The only time she spoke above a whisper , was praising God.
Mother Barnette, I know you are sure enough praising God now!
May he Bless you forever.
Love you,
Wynona*

“ My Dear Aunt Carrie! There will never be another quite like you. Your quiet demeanor, creativity, and your love for Christ will always be memories etched in our hearts. Now I thought I got all the special birthday cakes, but according to my cousin your love was shared; but no surprise, your kind of love is of such that could not be contained.

As a believer I rejoice knowing you are resting eternally with the Savior. Having lived a life pleasing to Him, to be absent from this world simply means to be present with the Lord. So I celebrate you and the life you lived!!!

“ Aunt Carrie ,we knew that this day was coming and felt that we would be ready. Now I ask myself how can you be ready to lose someone that you love . I have always looked at the picture of me and my first cake that you baked for me when I was a year old . All of the memories we shared over the years, I loved you then and I love you now .
