“ I reported to CT for the last two years. I always said that this was one of the best senior managers I've had. He always had our backs. I cannot believe this shocking news. I'm going to miss his smile, his laugh and his positive energy. I will forever pray for the Taylor family. Keep his memories alive and lean on God during this time CT touched so many lives, and he will truly be missed. Verizon will not be the same gone too soon.

He wore what seemed to be a permanent smile and always had a positive and uplifting response, regardless to the level of chaos our work projects often create. He was dependable, a man of integrity and his presence and genuine kindness will be missed by those who knew him. ...Deronda Horton VZ family

“ *Chris Taylor (CT) was my first Associate Director at Verizon Wireless in Hanover, MD (2006). He played an instrumental role in developing me into the best front line leader that I could possibly be. He was hard on his leadership team but for very good reason. I had the pleasure of working with CT and his beautiful wife, Barnita, who I reported to before becoming a supervisor. 🙏 Sending prayers and blessings to Barnita, Chris' daughters and all the family. My sincerest condolences. CT was a great spirit. May his spirit rise in peace. 🕯️ Chris may be gone in body but his spirit will never be forgotten. It is still here watching and guiding us. P.S. “ Sending my deepest heartfelt condolences. I am at a loss for words and prayers for family and everyone who loved him. As the mother of his Godson, I have some very special memories of how he bought my son his first pair of casual shoes and how he used to offer me advice on how to keep my son groomed and dressed as he was such a debonair man well versed in the area of grooming and fashion. It was only a few months ago when I saw him last ironically at another homegoing service, and his first words were "Blast from the past". I smile thinking of that last conversation and I am grateful that God gave me and my son the opportunity to see him for that brief moment. We were childhood friends, classmates from Fairfield Central High School class of 1988 and he will never be forgotten.

Sending sincere condolences and big hugs to the loves of Chris' life, Mrs. Taylor and his daughters; additional family and friends. When everyone describes you the same, then the likelihood of truth is great. Chris was a great leader/mentor, coach, jokester, supporter, good friend and master delegate (Right, Sam! Lol!) He took great pride in building cohesion within his leadership teams with the trickle down effect to the front line. He was never bigger than his title, selflessly willing to do what he expected of others. CT possessed an appreciated balance of professionalism and humanity. He knew when to change hats with his staff to bring out the best in you. He never shied away from showing his applicable passion, ie..SF 49ers. I remember the excitement when we gifted him a team hoodie. It was nothing to hear him and Tarsha screaming from his office on Mondays after the wins. This is a huge loss to a lot of us, but a massive win for The Kingdom. Chris will surely be missed, but never forgotten by his Verizon family. Take your rest, My Friend, until we meet again.
