“I am deeply sorry for your loss. Clivia was a woman of great faith whose life of service and love touched everyone around her. She taught me so much when I was starting out as a young adult and some of my favorite memories are from when our offices were next door to each other...I could hear her full-body laughter all day long. I am grateful that I knew her.”

“ Our deepest condolences to the family. Sis. Milburn was always one of the most pleasant ushers. She always had a smile and a kind word/greeting for you. Even though she was working, you would also witness her praising God in a little dance. Once she asked me where is your scarf, it's cold outside. I told her I didn't have one. The next service she brought me one, which I still wear to this day. Such a kind spirit. Prayers and blessings to her family and church family. Love Min. Anson, Sis. Angie and Barrington Cook. 🙏🌹

“ I will always remember the words of wisdom sister Milburn gave me when my son passed away earlier this year. Knowing she had also experienced the same type of pain gave her words more meaning. There is more to serving than showing someone where to sit. She was dedicated in many ways. Praying for the continued peace of the Milburn family during the days and weeks ahead. “ Clivia touched so many lives, she made the world a much nicer place to live in. I want to honor her by living as she lived. She will be greatly missed. May God grant the family comfort and peace.
