“ I remember he and his brother fondly as middle school students at Albemarle Road Middle School. Many years later I would see him at Nestle, at South Park Mall. He would smile that "beautiful smile" and ask "Who still work there?" every time I stopped by. I would tell him how jealous i was because his hair was "prettier" than mine! He thought that was so funny!

I am so hurt to learn of his transition. I'm sadden that I keep "Sharing A Memory" for to many of our young black KINGS. I will keep him in my heart and the family in my prayers.

“ So sorry for your lost. Dre was a respectful young man. I was his supervisor at Nestle toll house. He became like a son to me. He told me he went back to school. I just went to visit him a couple of month ago. We kept in touch. He will be miss. Love you Dre!

“ We who have come to know, admire, and love D’Andre Damian McLean will forever cherish his memory, infectious smile, hearty laugh, humor, and friendship. He was Young! Handsome! And had a Bright Future ahead of him, when his short-lived life came to a sudden and tragic end. Although gone, so soon from us, he will not be forgotten. We pray that the perpetrator (s) will be caught, “Justice [will] run down like water, and righteousness like a mighty stream” (Amos 5:24) , the family will be able to rest in peace, and will eagerly look forward for the Second coming of Jesus Christ: The One who will bring our loved ones back to life again..
