“Doris was a long time member of the Agape International Spiritual Center in Culver City CA. She participated whole heartedly in the Agape international Choir; the Agape's Friday night Folding ministry and the annual Women's Retreat for many years.

Her friendly and outgoing personality, cheery disposition, faithful service and generous support endeared her to so many in the community.

Doris, thank you for the fun times. the fried chicken parties; the countless conversations and sweet memories. You will be dearly missed. We bless you and light your journey on to the eternal life in Spirit!

*The first year of the annual Los Angeles Holiday Gathering by Margot and Wanda-Lee where Doris brought her light and cheer! Each time I attempt to use words to express what I feel regarding Doris they disappear. So just know for me her energy is eternal. And Hettie and Elmorris Sr. you know how I feel.
Continuously...Wanda-Lee*

“ I don't know where to start. Doris always had so many layers to her personality and there was always fun to be had on some kind of level. There was the political Doris; she could not stand the direction the country was going! The knowledgeable Doris.. absorbing through so many resources: newspapers everyday, magazines (countless subscriptions), the news....especially CNN. She always knew what was going on, but when she tried to talk the L.A.U.S.D School stuff...from union issues to the disfunctions in the institution, I would say, "Doris, could we please not talk about school?" She might counter with, Margot, where did you get those sneakers.? Hettie and I looked all over, but that Orange we could not find. She loved going with her sister Hettie to spiritual retreats and Vegas Casinos, Holiday parties and eating takeout food in her apartment. Her freezer was full of ice cream to which she knew I would say Yes! Doris was one of the few people that could get me to talking and laughing without effort. She was genuine, responsive and just easy to be with. She let you be who you are. Doris, you will truly be missed.

To Elmorris, Hettie and the James Family ...Condolences

“ Doris will be missed by so many. I had the opportunity to work with her at Carlos Santana Arts Academy and she was truly a blessing. She gave the best advice and she didn't just talk. She worked with and for you! When my counselor became ill and I needed help it was Doris who stepped forward and subbed. Children, their parents, and the entire staff knew she cared. Her kindness was contagious. That ever present smile of hers was contagious. Her joie de vivre was boundless. She was knowledgeable, committed, and intuitive. Thank you for sharing her with us. My sincere condolences to Doris' family and friends.

“ To the family and friends; Sister Heddi, WandaLee and those I've never met. I share your remorse and bereavement of our Doris James. I can honestly say it has been a joy to have been considered a friend and I treasure the memories gleaned from our times shared. Each of the times we've shared company has made me laugh, dance, act silly, and just rejoice. I'll miss meeting up with you and your sister every August in Las Vegas, the WandaLee & Margot annual Holiday festivities and just listening to your sharing your wisdom. These things are treasures and what makes friendships so valuable. Thank you for being so genuine. REJOICE! Your friend, Keny Long

“ Ms. Doris James was a favorite among my mother's "adopted daughters." Always at my mother's side, making sure she was "good..." that was Doris, anywhere and anytime Mama Byars was present. And OH! How she would remember the special days in our lives and drop some money in the envelopes, too! She dearly loved my mother and celebrated Thanksgiving 2019 with her; she was present for her last birthday on January 8, 2020 and for her Los Angeles memorial service on Jan. 23rd. Doris prayed for our children, our choir, our festivals, my dreams and our aspirations. She was always interested in her community of friends, and was a quiet champion for so many of us who will now share the stories of her attentive and generous nature. For many years, more than 20, she and her sister Ms. Hettie would make attending our Soul Sisters Retreat a priority. They would show up with smiles and great expectations that they would have a memorable time. And BABY! They did! And then on to Vegas they would go. Yes. Doris James is someone who will forever glow in my heart. I send condolences to Mrs. Hettie Martin and the entire James Family. May you be blessed in the days ahead and comforted in knowing that we are praying for you in these days we now share.

“ Ms. Doris,
One of the most sweetest people you could ever meet! Her smile was infectious and so was her cute little laugh! Doris ALWAYS encouraged me to go after my dreams and continue my education, because she always told me how smart and bright she thought I was since I was child and I'm almost 40 now! Every year Doris gave my brother and I Christmas and birthdays gifts growing up, by way of our aunt Wanda Lee Evans. She loved us like we were her own niece and nephew. Ms. Doris knew she could call on me or contact Wanda Lee to ask me for assistance doing anything she needed. Just most recently, I reached out to Ms.Doris for help with a research paper for a Psychology course I was taking over the summer 2020 at LATTC. Without hesitation Ms. Doris's guidance on how to create my hypothesis and knowledge on how to structure a research paper was shared with me; step by step. I wouldn't have gotten an "A" on the paper without her guidance! She never gave me answers, just knowledge on how to draw my own conclusions. And I loved that about her; a true Psychologist!! We talked for hours about child psychology, because of her passion for helping and working with children. Her encouraging words will continue to stick with me until I graduate again and move on to the next chapter in furthering my education. "You can do it Starr"!! I will continue to try my best Ms. Doris! I will miss picking your brain :) :)
I will continue to keep Ms.Doris in my heart and her knowledge in my head; and I will keep the James family lifted in prayer as you lay her beautiful soul to rest. I offer my condolences to everyone who had the pleasure to know and be inspired by this intelligent beautifully brilliant woman!! She will truly be missed!!
May she rest in PEACE, POWER and MERCY Lord, AMEN!

Love you Ms.Doris!! OXOXOX
