“ I will really miss Mama Janet she took me as her child when I started going to the Senoir Center at Hawthorne at the church. She was kind and generous to me. She would always tell me she loved even though she was not my biological mother. She never had any children but she had lot of God children. She always say I talked to your brother Robert that had never met and she would tell him the same thing. She really touched my heart and words could never express the way I feel.
