“ We are saddened to hear the news of Brother Joe but excited to know that he has arrived at the place of no more suffering, sorrow or pain. I worked with Joe for many years at Winn-Dixie and knew him to be the same man throughout the week as he was on the day of worship. He was well thought of by his colleagues and respected by his superiors. Joe spent many days here at the farm on the banks of the pond doing what he found to be fun and relaxing. We will miss him but will look forward to joining him one day in the heavens he made preparations for here on earth. May God rest his peace, security and comfort on the Davis Family during this time of their loss.

“ To The Family
My sincere condolences for the loss of a special person. I always greeted Joel as brother-in-law. He was always kind and had a smile on his face. Right now i can see him fishing and catching "Charlie" a great big catfish. Take your rest and may your loved ones find strength and comfort during this very difficult time.

May the merciful God comfort and keep you and your family during your time of mourning. May his love embrace your hearts, and the memories of life with your husband wash away all your pains. Be comforted in knowing that all souls return to its creator, and that peace and rest from all labor is restore when they are resting in God's loving arms.
