“ A man with a purpose. A smile on his face. And a warm & friendly greeting for all. Jyilek lit up a room when he walked in. The world was a kinder place with Jyilek as part of it.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Jyilek several times at Elevation church, my daughter Hanna was a friend of his. There are no words to express my sympathy for this tremendous loss. I was so impressed with this young man. I prayed that Hanna would remain friends with him. He was hungry for Jesus and I have only seen that once before in my 53 years of life. He was early at church and meditated on what was said at church and prayed. He was well spoken, well-mannered and a college athlete on top of all that. I desperately wanted Hanna to stay close to this young man. I told her, Hanna- you need people in your life that pray for you, we all do. This boy prayed, he actually prayed. This is a huge loss for the entire world. We will be at his service on Thursday to pay our respects to this beautiful baby boy, I say baby boy because my daughter is also 21 and their life is just getting started. What a beautiful young man and a huge loss. I was so impressed by this child. I was just so touched by his spirit, so impressed by his love of Jesus and I told my parents about him several times as well. They are the only two people I have ever known that have also been that hungry for Jesus, found Jesus on their own and made their own way to church. I am so very sorry to all of you that loved him, it truly is difficult to find the good in this loss. I try to remember that all evil comes from Satan and not God, I know exactly where Jyilek is but he will be so missed, even by me and I did not know him very well. I do not even want to go back to Elevation and not see his sweet smile and watch him at that church. He was so full of life & love for our Lord & Savior. Hanna said, you may not want to sit too close to him, he really gets into the worship (lol). I did want to, I wanted to sit right next to him, I just loved this child. He was just an amazing individual. God bless all of you at this time.
