“ I am a bit taken back, and speechless, as I am just learning of your passing two months later. Loss for words. I had to come here to see if it was really true. We grew up together at the MH and played on the Concert Band together. Years later, my husband and I relocated back to NC and you both became good associates. You were there when he needed a drummer. I remember how you were helpful to us when we were in need. Prayers for the family. May God give you strength during this difficult time. Sorry to see you go Kenny. Rest well.

“ I didn't imagine I would be writing this message at this time. I'm thankful for your friendship and unwavering love. You will never be forgotten. Praying your family finds comfort in knowing you are no longer suffering. Rest easy my love!

“Kenny was the example of “Love, Kindness and Joy!” He was my Best Friend. Kenny was an Active Listener, Extremely Affectionate. Regardless of the subject, Kenny didn’t hesitate “Speaking The Truths,” while providing Constructive Feedback. He was Trustworthy. My heart is heavy but I know there is Victory in Death. Heaven has gained a New Drummer...If you close your eyes you can see him with the Heavenly Band playing his “drums.” Sleep on Beloved Kenny and take your rest... GOD knows we love you but the GOD of Heaven loves you best. Until we meet again.
Yours in Grace,
