“ I would first like to give my condolences to Kenny, brandan, Tristan and kewten. I am deeply saddened by Melissa's departure. She was a very beautiful person with a heart of gold. Everytime I was in her presence I felt loved. When life got me down and we spoke my spirits were always lifted by her wisdom love and positivity. I wish I could talk to her and hear her voice one last time. I will miss her hugs and the warmth that I felt when ever I was around her. She will be missed dearly me. I love you Melissa

“ *Melissa wasn't just my best friend—she was my sister in every way that truly matters.
We met at 13, and from that moment on, we were always together. We shared so many of life's firsts—first boyfriends, graduations, first jobs, first homes. We were there for each other through the highest joys and the deepest sorrows, including the loss of a child. Through it all, Melissa was my constant.*

She was intensely private, and if she let you into her world, it was an honor—a true privilege. Her warmth, loyalty, and quiet strength made her the heart of every moment we shared. Being with her felt like being home.

My heart goes out to her husband Kenny (aka Babe), and to her boys Tristan, Kwenton, and Brandon. I know she's finally with her baby Christian, watching over all of us—probably shaking her head, but proud.

Melissa Ellington Baptiste... the best of the best.

I will miss her forever.

Love you, girl.

Debbie ❤️

“ I am so saddened by this loss, I can't seem to wrap my head around this. Melissa and Kenny were so kind and helpful to us when we first moved to New Jersey. Melissa and I would have playful arguments on the train going and coming from work, I was sad when they left NJ. She was always so helpful. My prayers and thought are with her husband and sons because they were always her main priority. God give them the strength to get thru this tragedy. But I know she is still with them.

“ My heart is so heavy with the lose of my dear friend Melissa. She never wanted to talk about her problems but encouraged you to share all going on with you and your family. However before we ended out conversation we would get to her life. We talked often sometimes two or three times a week. I could go on and on about many things, but I will stop here and just say again my HEART I so heave with the loss of my Dear friend Melissa Baptiste. She will never be forgotten! Rest in Peace my friend until we meet again. Love you Pat

“ Melissa, my sister, my true friend how I miss you, we spike every day sometimes 2x a day. My life is upside down I look forward to our daily conversations, but God knows what he does....I will forever, ever cherish the life that we shared, the laughter, the tears I will never ever, ever not have you in my heart and mind...rest up until we meet again.

Melissa was a kind and sweet person who loved her family deeply. I remember the day I saw Kenny and Melissa meeting. It was pure and innocent. She will always be remembered in my mind and heart. May I be blessed to see you on the other side. Rest well Melissa.
