“ My hearts go out to you, her family. I taught Millie at West Mecklenburg High School. I was her tutor and also her club mentor in our social club called the "Swans." She was a quiet and thoughtful young woman, interested in helping me if she could and simply showed up without saying a word. When I was hospitalized for very serious surgery, Millie walked for at least two miles to visit me in the hospital in the hot summer sun and walked that same distance to get on a bus to go home. She called me when her first child was born, although we had not spoken for some time. She will always be a warm and sweet memory for me and I pray that God will bless and favor her children with everything she deserved in life. Blessings,
