“ St. Mary Crawford was very dear to me and my family. She was introduced to us during our childhood. She was a devoted pastors' wife. She was mother, grandmother, great grandmother. Oh what an inspiration, outstanding and spiritual missionary. She was anointed and named a special Saint by the Late great Daddy McCollough. She traveled and helped with the spiritual and financial works. She traveled all the way to Cleveland Ohio and brought many souls back to God. I will always remember and be grateful for your support and love. Love always Saint Darlene Hector

“ St. Missionary Crawford you will ALWAYS remain in my heart. Oh what sweet memories I have of you. I am so thankful/grateful for the work you've done through the years; and I am blessed to have come up in an Era of learning the true meaning of how to be born-again and how to live a Holy Ghost filled life. Thanks to you. You impacted my life tremendously and I thank God for you. My husband often teases me when I sometimes remind him of the goodness of the Lord and I go on and on for long periods of time. He would say, "alright St. Mae Crawford"! Because he knows I'm telling him nothing but the truth. (Smile) In return, I would always smile because I count it an honor--him calling me by your name.

I will miss you St. Crawford as I have before now. I would always wonder how you were doing and where you were. Anyway, rest well. "May the works I've done speak for me!" You deserve your crown. "If I Could Help Somebody, My Living Shall Be in Vain." It was not in vain.

Prayers for the family and friends, and everyone who knew and loved her.

“ St. Missionary Mae Crawford has always been an inspiration to me before I met and got to know her personally. I will forever remember the conversation we had. Thank you for the encouraging words. She was a true warrior for Daddy now that her work on earth is finish she can take her rest. That song still rings in my ear today "I am your Missionary Dad you brought me through". Hallelujah.

“ St. Missionary Crawford is a UHOPFAP legend and served as an example for future missionaries and those saved with the Holy Ghost and Mighty Burning Fire. She showed and taught us how we must be born again according to all our Prophets teachings. She tarried with you all night long and never left the seekers alone. She would fast and pray and stick with you until God Blessed your Soul. She inspired me to press on through the Good and Challenging Times of Life and to never give up. Well Done! Take your Rest. We Loved You But God Loved You Best! Condolences to the Bereaved Family.

“ St. Missionary Crawford, was a jewel and a very sweet person and someone that will always be special to me I would love when she would come to the Mother House in Charlotte and Run her revivals, I definitely will miss the talks we we would have sitting on the bed in dorms Miami Florida. Especially when I would see her at St. Paradise when I would go visit my grandmother, whom was also residing there at the time (St. Maebell Coleman) sitting around and listen to these two saints talk about the old times and the history was interesting and exciting to me. These are some of our pillars of this organization.. Definitely will miss you..Take ur rest, St. Crawford, ❤️

I remembered how grateful St. Crawford was when you did something for her while she was traveling to Los Angeles on her missionary stop, we wanted to do something for her while she was in Los Angeles to make her stay we took her out to get a home cooked meal so she could enjoy herself but after when I would see her at the house of prayer she would say grateful she was by taking the time out for her this went on for years after we are going to miss her for trying to get SOUL'S SAVED until the end.

“ St. Mae and I worked together at the Housing and Urban Development (HUD), located at 26 Federal Plaza for a number of years. We would leave together going to NYC Mother House for Service, go out to lunch, and had numerous conversations. I will never forget how she came to my assistance when one of my best friends passed away (Valerie Denise Weathers).

I remember her dad, St. Eld. S. Weathers, called my office and told me that Niecy had passed away. I went into a state of shock and St. Mae was the one who came to calm me down with her voice, prayer, and song.

She was an amazing sister and friend. St. Mae will forever be in my heart.

My prayers and condolences to the Family.

“ Oh how I remember her meetings she ran in Boston. We would leave some nights speaking in tongues.. The passion she carried trying to help someone come closer to Christ...Bold soldier for Christ wherever she was.. Will miss that famous ..."Hey-dah-commanasah" as she shouted and praised God.. Rest on St Crawford.. you are legendary!! One of a kind.. Prayers for the family..

Peace

I grew up with some real Saints and Missionaries in this Kingdom and Saint Crawford is one that I will never forget

She would pour out her soul

Trying to bring someone to Christ

Her Love was Genuine

Time meant nothing to her

She just wanted you to cross over

So thankful that my daughter was in that number

Keep Shouting

Wow I really missed her I grew up with all of her kids in New York City. With the older son, Derek we played basketball a lot with the others we were on the marching bands we had some great times together. I also missed Apostle Crawford as well him and I use to talk for hours and Saint Crawford as well RIH
