“ My most sincerest and heartfelt condolences go out to the immediate and extended family of Mr. Nahzir Emmanuel Taylor. I am perplexed and dismayed about the tragic loss of this young man. My wife said she taught him how to first write his name and that he was intelligent, respectful as well as easy going. We will never realize this young man's potential but we must accept God's will because God doesn't make mistakes. Mr. Nahzir is now at an ETERNAL destination where we have yet to arrive. Now that Mr. Nahzir Emmanuel Taylor has crossed the bar (something all of us must do at life's end) we must loose him and let him go. There is a brighter side somewhere and surely Mr. Nahzir Emmanuel Taylor can walk around HEAVEN all day. "Excellence is to do a common thing in an uncommon way" (Booker T. Washington). Respectfully submitted by: Artemus Flagg, Ph. D. of Charlotte, North Carolina.
