“ Tassy was a loving and sweet person. She looked like her grandmother and had that same graceful spirit. We grew up in the same neighborhood and became friends. We also sang together in a group in church that Elder Wilkerson put together. We enjoyed some good times worshipping, singing and socializing as sisters of faith. She was genuine, beautiful and honest young women. I call myself blessed to have known and loved her. She is now with our heavenly father. We are praying for her family and friends at this difficult time. Love Sharron and Willie Harrison
