To the family of Pricilla, I just found out about her passing. She always had a kind and pleasant presence when my family entered church at New life . Of all the years we attended and was greeted by her I remember her smiling face and kind words she said to my family. RIH

“ Priscilla, thanks for all the Friday texts, and all the love you had shown me. You had been a true Christian woman. We went through somethings in the past.

God brought us back together with true meaning as how sisters should be, with love and concern for one another. We talked about the past and look towards the future. I expressed by deepest sympathy to your children and grandchildren, May God heal each and every one of them, you will be missed. Sleep now my sister until we meet again. You had earned your wings.

“ Mrs. P, Mrs. P, I'm looking at your picture, still in dis-belief. Smiling and laughing at how you would always be talking trash jokingly of what you were going to do or not do. Whenever I would have to help you at work, I would always walk away laughing at something you said. You will be missed. Sending my condolences to the family and friends. Rest well Mrs. P.

“ I'll never forget the very 1st day I started at WF in 2015, Mrs. P told me I didn't have to dress up. She said, baby you don't have to dress up every day. We like to be comfortable up in here! Lol!! From that day forward, I felt so welcomed by her. She made me feel accepted! I would always remind her of that and she would just laugh and say, well we don't!! Lol!! I will miss her dearly! The sparingly text to say good morning and she misses me, are not replaceable! I LOVE you Mrs. P! Rest well! I'll see ya when I get there! :):)

Not a day went by with you here, where we didn't say something funny to each other and made each other laugh. Only you would say "Don't tell anyone I am retiring" but come to find out you done told everyone!!!! I miss our talks and most of all I just miss my Ms. P!!! You have the ultimate retirement now, so get your well deserved rest and your memory will live on forever.....
