“ You are truly going to be missed. Thank for kindness and words of wisdom of how to navigate in this life. Also for having such great charisma and handsome good looks! We will not be sad but with thanksgiving and prayer we will rejoice of your homecoming! And most of allowing me to call you granddad too!

Monique Parr - June 16, 2020 at 02:39 PM

Yep! That's granddaddy---full of charisma and wisdom. He was also quite charming. He never forgot you and asked about you. Thank you for your love sis.

Cierra White - June 17, 2020 at 12:36 AM

My condolences to you and I am praying that you find comfort in knowing that he promises to not leave us comfortless. Praying your strength in the Lord. Love Songi

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family of Robert Dixon. He will surely be missed from the hymn choir. When he got sick and was unable to attend it really hurt him. He loved to sing. We surely miss his voice. Again, we're keeping you all in our prayers.

Thank you so much for your prayers and for checking on him! He loved to sing especially with the hymn choir. We appreciate your thoughtfulness.

Robert Dixon was instrumental in helping to establish Reeder Memorial Baptist Church and its fund-raising. He helped to establish the Men's Fellowship Program and the annual Men's Bar-B-Q. He was a former restaurant owner, who brought his talent and experience to the church in service. He was a man of God in spirit and in truth. "Dixon," as he was called, could out work and replace any 5 men in his work and service. He was a joy to learn from him and work with him in the church. He will be missed. May God receive and bless his soul.

“ Robert Dixon was my dad's cousin but called him my Uncle. He let me stay with him after moving to Charlotte. He had the best restaurant in downtown area (Dowd Family Restaurant a few blocks from where the Panthers stadium is now). He taught me how to cook some of that ol' country cooking 😊 He and I would cut up and joke around but he was down to earth. And boy can he sing and raise a hymn 🙏! When he moved to Charlotte and got settled at Reeder Memorial, he formed a hymn choir there. That church really loved him. I'm glad I got to spend a little time with him before he moved to ATL. Well rest on Uncle Dixon. You will be missed.

One thing is for sure, he could cook up something good 😊. He wasn't a stranger in the kitchen. I'm so thankful that you and granddaddy created special moments in time 😊

“ When I was a child I thought people lived for such a long time now as an adult I realize no matter how long or short a person's life is we are all here on earth JUST A LITTLE WHILE.

I only knew Mr. Dixon whom I affectionately referred to as POP for just a few months but from day one it was as if we'd known one another forever. We quickly established a bond and for me I looked forward to our weekly visits. He was always kind, caring and humorous. Pops loved himself some comfort food, -may your Indulgence never cease now that you have made it to your heavenly home. I will miss you, I am grateful we crossed paths. Rest In Peace

“ Robert Dixon was truly a man of God that will be extremely missed from the Hymn Choir of Reeder Memorial. He loved singing those good, ole songs, always willing to sing when he was able. He was a great leader. I could hear him singing "I Don't Want To Be Standing Outside." To the family, my husband and I are sending condolences and prayers. Let God be your strength during this time and always .

“ We are grateful to our father God in heaven for the great memories and the times that we share with granddaddy. Granddaddy will be greatly missed by all of us the laughter, the teasing, and the joys that he gave to us will be forever embedded in our hearts. May he rest in peace and know that we are praying for you all and we love y'all. Blessings to you all

“ He will greatly be missed! He created such a loving bond with my daughter and I will forever be grateful for that. My daughter will always remember the time she and her Auntie Cierra went on a hunt to get the “real” country ham for him. Ill always remember him asking for his “cheesecake please.” Such warm memories. You all will continue to be in my prayers

“ Granddaddy always had style. Now he’s with the angels strutting in style. I may not know everything about heaven, but I know granddaddy. So, I know he’s trying his best to keep something good to eat in his mouth :) Fried chicken is my guess :)

My prayer is that all you who cared so deeply for him are comforted knowing that he’s right at home in his heavenly home with his Father. May you be at peace knowing he is also. Love eternally, Cierra.

I'm going to miss my uncle and my friend. He could always call on me and I didn't hesitate to answer. He was sharp mentally and physically despite what health issues he faced. I will miss his charm, his singing and putting my husband in his place. 😂😂 That's an inside joke where you had to know the interaction between them two. Thanks for the good times! Love you forever ❤️
