“ So many memories...where to begin. The last time I saw him was at a mother's day celebration and I offered to move to let him sit next to me..he flashed that great big smile and said "Sam, I don't want to sit next to you, I'm sitting next to my woman"...LOL. Roscoe, El, Oro and I shared so many memories back in the day....I guess I will hold on to those ever so tightly and cherish every one of them. I'm so sorry for the entire family, and even more so for his wife..my heart feels so heavy thinking of her without him by her side.

Sadly the last time we were together it was while visiting our oldest brother in the hospital. I wanted some coffee and told him there was a fancy coffee maker in the visitors Cafe room that I had tried to get to work but couldn't. He said come on we will figure it out and we did. We had our coffee which was a little weak to him who was used to that strong army brew but we enjoyed it together not knowing it would be our last time together. Rest in heaven little brother.

Your big sister,
Vera
