I remember Shari many yeas ago, while

“ Remembering Shari D. Hope

I remember our friendship, beginning in our teenage years and carried by God's grace into adulthood. I cherish our McCollough years—serving together, growing together, and finding joy in every moment. We walked through life's seasons as wives, mothers, and grandmothers, sharing laughter that became sacred memories.

You blended seamlessly into our family, sharing meals, spontaneous sleepovers, and standing with us through life's many transitions. Your presence was a gift, and your love was felt more deeply than words can express.

You will be forever remembered for the kindness you showed—often never knowing how powerfully God used you to bless others. Your life reflected His love in quiet, beautiful ways.

*Now rest in His eternal peace,

“ St. Hope... you will be truly missed, this is a hard one. You are such a beautiful soul inside and out. When I ask you to be the God mother of Laila you didn't hesitate you was so happy. You immediately went right to work. I loved you for that. I'm going to miss us laughing and talking on the phone and you saying GIRL you is so crazy (lol). I thank God for you ❤️. St.Eld. Hope, Shariva, Christin and the family May God give you comfort and strength during this time.
