“ I'm really going to miss sweet Val. We always greeted each other with a smile and kind words! If everyone in the world had such a loving spirit and humble soul as she, what a beautiful world this would be! Regardless of what she were going through in life, she didn't let anything stop her from giving God the praise! Now that you're home... you can rejoice all you want because every day is a Sunday!! My thoughts and prayers go out to the family for peace and comfort during this time.
