“ Willette was a strong loving person. She deeply cared for her kids, grand kids, family members, and friends. I was so lucky that she accepted me into her home over 30 years ago. She would always be there to welcome me with a smile and a hug. She was so easy to talk to and confide in and she always left you feeling secured, loved, and cared for. She always would tell you what she was thinking or how she felt about a situation, but it would be out of love and her concern to keep the family close.

I will always remember the family vacations, the family events, the cruises, and the times we just all hung out at her house and talked. She had a welcoming spirit and comforting nature.

I will truly miss Willette. Her comforting smile, the "Hey David" as I walk in the room, her strength, her charisma, her support, her advice, her concerns, her love for horror movies, her love for her kids and grand kids, her willingness to try to help, most of all I will miss her.

Shauntelle, Rodney, and Tyrone it has been my honor to know you and your mother over these many years. She loved you all deeply as you know. She is still with you in spirit. Her strength, her love, her confidence, and her understanding has been intertwined within you all so that you can keep moving forward through your own journey. I know this is tough and its going to be hard, especially when you need to talk to her, just stay strong and know that she is still listening.

Love,
David Dye
