“ My sincerest thoughts prayers and condolences to Ruth's family. So sorry to hear of her passing. I knew her from our Choirs singing from years ago. She was a beautiful person inside and out with a BIG personality. I loved me some Ruth; may she rest in paradise. God's blessings upon her family. 🙏💜

“ My condolences to her family. I'm her neighbor who lived in the building next to her we first met at First Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church off Oaklawn. As well at the dry cleaners off the Plaza she always greeted me with a smile always a sharp dresser and hair was always in beautiful curls...Rest easy will definitely miss our talks.

“ Prayers and hugs goes out to Sheena and Family! Ms. Ruth was one of my good friends and I missed talking with her at the Cleaners off of The Plaza! I had moved from that side of town and loss contact with her. She was on my mind the other day and to hear this really tore me up! Ruth will fuss me out than we will be just laughing and talking about anything for hours! I loved me some Ms. Ruth and she will be a Angel to me that I will really miss! I loss my mother when I was 8yrs old and Ruth knew her and has been a good friend to the family every since. Rest easy my friend! Tonette Goodman and Family
